“Oh Come Let Us Adore Him”
2 Corinthians 9:15

Introduction: This morning we come together to celebrate Christmas. It is one of the most important events in all of human history.

1. It is the day we set aside to recognize what Paul called “God’s indescribable gift”.
2. Theologians, pastors, teachers, authors, musicians & countless others have had two thousand years to describe Jesus.
3. I don’t think we have even scratched the surface. I think Christ is pretty much indescribable, which is why we celebrate.
4. Unfortunately, over the years our celebration has gone off track.
 - I don’t blame the commercialism & secularism of our culture.
 - I don’t blame the anti-Christian sentiment that is spreading in our culture.
 - This is a follower of Jesus problem.
5. Jesus is an indescribable gift who literally changed the world.
6. We have made His birthday into a holiday we celebrate once a year & then return to normalcy.
7. After God’s indescribable gift, we should have a new normal. That new normal is a life of worship.

I. What Is Worship?

- A. Worthship
- B. A Way Of Life
- C. We Will Worship (Someone or Something)

II. Is Jesus Worthy Of Worship?

- A. Who Is Jesus?
- B. What Has He Done?

III. How Should We Worship?

- A. A Birthday Celebration
- B. A Living Sacrifice

Conclusion: I want to wish each one of you the merriest of Christmas, but even more, I want you to recognize the significance of Jesus’ birth goes far beyond a birthday celebration.

1. He came to change the world & in many ways, He has.
2. Don’t let Christmas be just another holiday.
3. Let Jesus radically change you!
