
Everyday Christianity

“Starting The Day”

Psalm 1:1-3

03-12-23

Introduction: We have begun a new series where our focus is “Everyday Christianity”.

1. Following Christ extends beyond Sunday morning.
2. We started this study by focusing on our identity.
3. Today we focus on how we can get each day off to a good start.
4. Things like happiness, success and fulfillment are not guaranteed and do not happen by accident.
5. God knows better than we do what the right direction is, we should plan the day around His guidance.
6. That means we must be in communication with Him.

I. The Prescription For Success

A. The Wrong Formula

B. The Right Formula

II. The Picture Of Success

A. Stability

B. Fruitfulness

C. Endurance

D. Abundance

Conclusion: By starting each day with God, we ensure we are headed in the right direction.

1. Spending time with God is a personal matter. Find what works best for you.
2. Whatever the format, make sure the plan includes:
 - Prayer
 - Time in The Word
 - Meditation
 - Intentional Application
3. Remember success is a progressive journey, not an event.
4. You will succeed if you keep striving!
